[उपसभापति]

दे दी गई और आप बोल भी चुके है। इस लिए अब आप चुपचाप बैठ जाइये... (व्यवधान) मैंने आपसे कह दिया है अब आप खामोसी से बैठ जाइये। यह कोई तरीका नहीं है। आपको दुनिया में कोई भी सेटिस्फाई नहीं कर सका है। अब आप बैठ जाइये। मंत्री जी ने जवाब दे दिया है। आपकी समझ नहीं आता है तो आपको कोई नहीं समझा सकता है।

SHRI VISHWA BANDHU GUPTA: Madam, think he is making some serious remarks against the Chair ...(Interruptions)...

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I have already said that what he says will not go on record...(Interruptions)

अगर आप खामोश नहीं होते हैं तो आपके साथ यही तरीका इस्तेमाल करना पड़ेगा। अगर आप खामोश नहीं होते हैं और चेयर की रूलिंग को भी बर्दाश्त नहीं करते हैं तो जो कुछ आपने कहा मैं सब एक्सपंज कर दूंगी।

(Interruptions)

आपको अच्छी बात कही है, आप फिर भी नहीं मानते हैं .... (व्यवधान)

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI M. M. JACOB): Mr. Ram Awadhesh Singh, you must have some consideration for the people who have not taken even their meals...(Interruptions) ...They are waiting for the completion of this Calling Attention Motion. This is very unfortunate. It is unfortunate that some Members cannot even listen to the Chair. People will have to go home. Today is the last day of th Session. You have to raise any thing, come with that during the nex Session. But do not penalise th people who are here now. Don't te the patience of the people...(Inter ruptions)...It is very very unfortu nate...(Interruptions)... Don't pena lise the people.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: L nothing of what he says be recorde

FAREWELL TO RETIRING MEM BERS AND VALEDICTORY REMARKS

उपसभापति: अब आप बैठ जाइ आखिरी दिन इतना गुस्सा करना ठी नहीं है। चेयरमैन साहब ने आपकी बा मानी, आपको बोलने दिया। मंत्री जी ने जवाब दे दिया है। अब आप चुपचाप रहिये। कम से कम हाउस का समय तो मत लूटिये। आज आखिरी दिन हम लोगों को स्टाफ को भी शुक्रिया कहना है मेम्बरों को शुक्रिया कहना है। उन्होंने इतनी मेहनत से काम किया है। खास तौर से आपके इतने लम्बे भाषण को सुना। मंत्री जी ने आपको जवाब दिया आज लास्ट डे है, हम एडजर्न करने वाले हैं। हमारे कुछ मेम्बर रिटायर होने वाले हैं। आप भी उनको शुभकामनायें देने में शामिल होइये। उनका हाउस में इतना अच्छा कंट्रीब्यूशन रहा है। हमारे बासुमतारी जी रिटायर होने वाले हैं हमारे आसाम के जज साहब रिटायर होने वाले हैं, कुछ और लोग भी रिटायर होने वाले हैं। आपको वे अच्छी याद लेकर जायें, यह हमें सोचना है। वे क्या सोच कर जाएंगे! अब आप लम्बा चौड़ा भाषण करने के बाद भी लड़ाई झगड़ा कर रहे हैं। आपने कितनी देर लगा दी। इसके लिए आपको शुक्रिया करना चाहिए। सारा स्टाफ बैठा हुआ है।

Honourable Members, I have to mention here that some of the Members' terms are going to expire next month—one is that of Mr. Basumatari and the other is Mr. Baharul Islam. The term of six Members from the State of Tamil Nadu will also expire in June 1989. They are: Shri Aladi Aruna, Shri Kadharsha, Shri Era Sambasivam, Shri Murasoli Maran, Shri S. Viduthalai Virumbi and Shri G. Varadaraj. Today being the last day of the current Session, I thought we should take this opportunity of placing on record the valuable services rendered and substantial contributions made by these Members to this House. By their presence and speeches they have enriched and enlivened the proceedings of the House. Shri Baharul Islam and Basumatari Dada have been very senior and distinguished members of the House. Our colleagues from Tamil Nadu are due to retire only on July 24. I cannot say at this stage whether this is their last Session. Nonetheless, I take this opportunity of placing on record their services to the House as well. We bid them farewell and wish that they continue to enjoy excellent health and happiness. Of course, if they come back to the House, our pleasure will be doubled.

I once again thank hon. Members, leaders of various parties and groups for the kind cooperation extended by them for conducting the proceedings of the House. There will be a comparatively long interregnum before we meet for the next session which will be monsoon session. We, therefore, pray that there may be a good monsoon in all parts of the country, and I can only say:

सुजलाम् सुफलाम् मलयज शीतलाम् ।
शस्य श्यामलाम्...

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI M. M. JACOB): Before you adjourn the House, I would like to express our deep appreciation and thanks to the Chair for the magnificent way in which the proceedings of the House were conducted. Through you, Madam, I convey our humble thanks to the distinguished Chairman of the Rajya Sabha Also, Madam, you have shown wisdom, courage and magnanimity together. Today we could that you are an embodiment of patience when testing moments are there in the House.

Madam in this session we are very fortunate to have a more active session than some other sessions, because more Members were very active. Some people thought that this is actually a deviation from the conventions of the House. Madam, I myself think that this is actually strengthening the democratic process in this country, with more and more people showing more and more concern about things happening in the country, Members expressing their anxiety and anguish which is also a sign of the healthy growth at the same time in our country.

Madam, I am thankful to all the Members of this House, especially those who remained last on every day, at the fag end of the day, because they are really the Members who are helping us to run the House even at late hours. So I am thankful to all those colleagues and also my Leader of the House, Mr., Shiv Shanker, as also my colleague Malaviyaji for the unstinted cooperation.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not mention a word of thanks to the panel of Vice-Chairman especially Mr. Jagesh Desai, who used to sit here and avoid any eventuality that may come to the House. He would be readily available to chair whenever you are not here even. So it is an unusual occasion. That is why I am expressing this.

We are hopeful that the retiring Members will certainly come back in the near future to this House to bless this House with their distinguished presence. A person like Mr. Basumatari who had the distinction of being a member of the Constituent Assembly of India, is actually retiring. And I hope his continued presence in the House will give us more and more inspiration for the future generations which are coming to this House.

Madam, I also express on behalf of the Members in this House and the Government our appreciation to the Secretary-General and his colleagues also, and also the Watch and Ward who play a significant role in maintaining the House in a healthy fashion.

Thank you very much to you, Madam, specially for your kindness in bearing everything when we were all mischievous very often.

Thank you so much.

DR. NAGEN SAIKIA (Assam): Madam, I associate myself with the hon. Minister, Mr. Jacob, and express our gratefulness and thankfulness to you and through you to our hon. Chairman also.

At the same time, Madam, we have consumed enough of steel today, and actually by our hon. Member, Mr. Ram Awadhesh Singh and our hon. Minister.

Before we depart I want to say a few words about our senior colleagues Shri Basumatari and Shri Baharul Islam, both of them from my State, because we shall miss these two faces from Assam in this House. I think this may be the last day.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: If you cooperate, he can come back. (Interruptions)

DR. NAGEN SAIKIA: Shri Basumatari is one of the seniormost members in the Parliament. He was a member of the Constituent Assembly from 1946—52 and a member of the Lok Sabha from 1957 to 1977 and was elected to Rajya Sabha in 1983. A freedom fighter and a Gandhite, Shri Basumatari has been sincerely advocating for the upliftment of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes of the country and also for allround development of his own State. At the age of 75, he is still going strong. In the House whenever stands to speak something, he d not leave the smallest chanc to AGP. But still we know he lo us. Sometimes when he speaks fr his memory about his suggestions t he claims to have given to Pa Nehru, Mrs. Indira Gandhi and ot stalwards of the Indian politics, sometimes become amused. We sh miss this aged personality wit youth in him.

In this House we sometimes tr and we liked also to make him an by interrupting him when he spc but with no malice in our heart. know and I hope he would not k any ill-feeling in his mind an know that he cannot keep any feeling in his broad mind and in broad heart. I also hope, Mad that in the coming days he w be more closer to the AGP Gove ment in Assam with a more br mind and a heart to see Assam sm I wish him a long and cherished li Shri Baharul Islam, a man of kn ledge, one of the founders of Socia Party in Assam and a judicious p sonality, is out and out a nationa in spirit and action. He comma respect and love from all sections people in Assam. A former Judg the Assam and Nagaland High Co and of the Supreme Court of In Shri Islam possesses a legalistic, ju cious and balanced mind which g projection through his words and tions as well. He is a soft-spo gentleman of noble behaviour. him some of the best of the Assam character can be felt very easily. add more, he has lately started write some short stories in Assam from the experiences of his life a these stories have already attrac the attention of the intelligentsia Assam.

I wish he would be contribut more and more for the allround de lopment of Assam and thereby country. I wish him a long and ha life.

SHRI DHARANIDHAR BASUMATARI (Assam): With a heavy heart I am taking leave of this House after six years. I had the proud privilege to be associated with great national leaders of this great country, including Pt. Nehru, Sardar Patel, Maulana Azad, Shri Govind Ballabh Pant, Shastriji, Indiraji and now the youthful Prime Minister of ours. I am also very happy to mix with you. You address me as 'Dada' which is very sweet to me. With this feeling I leave the House thanking our State Minister Mr. Jacob for using inspiring words about me. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Thank you very much, Dada Basumatari. Wish you all the best, a happy life. You will come back, if not in this Chamber, at least you will enrich our lobbies by your presence.

I wish all the Members a very happy inter-session. And I take this opportunity to thank the entire staff and the Secretary-General of the Rajya Sabha, who are in the Chamber and outside the Chamber, as our Minister for Parliamentary Affairs says, the watch and ward, and specially today for sitting here for such long hours, and I will fail in my duty if I would not put on record my sincere thanks to my Panel of Vice-Chairman, who have helped to run this House so beautifully and also the smiling quiet Minister for Parliamentary Affairs and his assistant, who keeps going round and round in the House to cool the Members when they are angry, Sometimes we have had angry exchanges, sometimes there were whimpers, sometimes there was chorus, and we have all enjoyed it. This is part of our healthy democracy. And I do not feel any malice against anybody and I am sure Mr. Ram Awadhesh Singh. When he comes back, he will have more patience and even we would have more patience for him also and he would also have more patience for us and we have discussed so much steel that I would request the Steel Minister to give us some steel so that we can put it in our nerves so that we won't get irritated and angry and I thank everybody and the House is adjourned sine die.

The House then adjourned sine die at seventeen minutes past ten of the clock.
